

Mother's Blessing

He calls you beloved. This is how God identifies Jesus in Matthew 3:17 and this is how He identifies YOU!

Only the One who created you, has the right and the authority to identify you!
Today I would like to impart a mother's blessing to you as a mother myself and as a woman with a mother's heart for every one of you.

I'm sorry if I ever made you feel like you weren't wanted or accepted or unconditionally loved.

I'm sorry if I ever made you feel less than, or made you feel like you weren't enough.

Please forgive me.

I bless your life daughter. The life God created you for.

He formed you in your mother's womb to be exactly who you are, to look precisely as you do, to have the personality and character that you have.

There were no surprises.

You were uniquely crafted and specifically designed for God's purpose. You are His masterpiece!

I am sorry if I ever abandoned you emotionally or physically.

I'm so sorry if I didn't support you in the ways, you needed me to.

I'm sorry if I put pressure on you unintentionally.

Please forgive me if I spoke critically over you or even cursed you.

I bless the day you were born, the perfect timing of your birth and the destiny that God pre-planned for your life.

All the days of your life were ordained before one of them came to be. May you discover the sheer joy of walking in the steps that God has ordered for your life.

I am sorry if I did not spend enough time with you, or neglected you or failed to keep my promises to you. I'm so very sorry. Will you forgive me?

I bless you as a mother! I proclaim generational blessings upon you and your family line for a thousand generations! May each of your beautiful children share your values in life and experience their own personal walk with the Lord.

Please forgive me if I did not accept or approve of your spouse. I bless your marriage.

What God has joined together, let no man separate. May you always be one with your husband and know the leading of the Lord to be able to support, encourage and respect him in all things.

When I look at you, I see Jesus. I am so proud of you. I honor you.

I speak life to every cell in your entire being.

You make me smile. You make me laugh! You daughter, hold a special place in my heart that only wonderful you can hold! You are strong and courageous! You are beautiful and brave!

And you, can do all things through Christ.

He sees you, He knows you, He hears you, He answers you, and oh! How He loves you!

You are a beloved daughter of the most high King!
